R sponse to Argum nts

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the three-dimensional map must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference sign(s) not mentioned in the description: Box labeled 4 and 5. A proposed drawing correction, corrected drawings, or amendment to the specification to add the reference sign(s) in the description, are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over "Non-Invasive Measurement of temperature-versus-depth profile in biological systems using a multiple-frequency-band microwave radiometer system"; Research Institute of Electronics by Yoshinori Hamamura et al., in view of "Non-invasive Temperature Profiling Using Multi-Frequency Microwave Radiometry in the Presence of Water-Filed Bolus"; Special Issue on the 3rd Asia-Pacific Microwave conference by Shizuo Mizushina et al.

Regarding to claimed invention as best understood, Yoshinori et al teaches non-invasive measurement of temperature in a human body wherein radiometers operates on the single-frequency measurement principles. Yoshinori et al teaches Rayleigh-Jeans equation to describe the intensity of radiation and uses three-band microwave radiometer system wherein measurements are made automatically and displayed on the CRT in real time, see at least abstract and pg 221. Yoshinori et al does not specifically disclose measuring infrared radiation to determine the temperature. Shizuo et al teaches to measure temperature distribution in the treatment region using the microwave radiometer see abstract, lines 6-7. In figures 6 and 7, Shizuo et al discloses radiometric temperature profiling as three-dimensional map of temperature distribution. It would have been obvious to one of the ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to utilize Shizuo's temperature measurement into the system of Hamamura et al, because it provides better precision and improves the stability of radiometer as disclosed in the conclusion section of the paper, see Shizuo's article.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
